

BY HIS MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT.

John Skidmore,
Stove-Grate Maker

To his MAJESTY'S Honourable Board of Ordnance,

No. 15, COPPICE-ROW, CLERKENWELL,

(Facing the Old Mount leading from Clerkenwell-Green to Bagnigge Wells)

MOST respectfully informs the Nobility and Public at large, That he has always ready finished an elegant and extensive Assortment of his NEW-INVENTED REGISTER-STOVES, with Silver or Japan Fronts, and Silver, Steel, or other Mouldings, richly ornamented with his Patent Jewellery in Foil Stones, &c. &c. of various Colours and Devices, which are warranted never to fail, lose their Lustre, or want cleaning.

Also an elegant and extensive Assortment of other REGISTER-STOVES, of various Patterns, in Cast Iron, Japan, and Plain-polished Steel; or richly engraved and ornamented. POLISHED STEEL STOVE-GRATES in great Variety, and great Choice of Cast-fronted Stove-Grates, in Imitation of Steel ones.

KITCHEN RANGES, with or without Perpetual or other Ovens, Boilers, &c. and BATH-STOVES with OVENS, which bake by the same Fire, without the least Inconvenience.

Various Patterns and Sizes of STOVES for WARMING Churches, Halls, Staircases, Warehouses, &c. SMOKE and WIND-UP JACKS. Also, great Variety of FENDERS, SHOVELS, TONGS, &c. &c.

BELL-HANGING, and every Article in the Smith's Branch, executed in the best Manner, and at the lowest Prices.

Five per Cent. allowed for Ready Money.

The pleasantest Coach-Road from the Upper Part of the West End of the Town, is down Paddington New Road, through Battle-Bridge, and passing Bagnigge Wells, to COPPICE-ROW;—from the City, through Red Lion or Aylesbury-Street, and across Clerkenwell-Green, to COPPICE-ROW;—and from the Center, or Westminster Part of the Town, is up Hatton-Garden and down Back-Hill, to COPPICE-ROW.